Are you tired of watching Netflix? Have you binged enough Amazon originals for the entire year? Have you already rewatched Avengers: Endgame...twice? Looking for something a bit more interactive to do while quarantined? If you want to play some games with friends, find the five best multiplayer online games available on the App Store below. With the assortment listed — which takes into account a variety of tastes — at least one should be to your liking. A Monopoly game is seen during the Monopoly is available on the App Store for $3.99. Given the hours of enjoyment this game will supply, 4 bucks isn't really too much to ask. Tell a handful of friends to download, and you can play — with up to four people. However, when your friends aren't available for a game of chance and negotiation, feel free to play with the AI characters or a select group of complete strangers! While Monopoly can be one of those stressful games — ending friendships for life — it will give you something else to stress about for a few hours...not a bad tradeoff, right? 2. Scattergories Where are the word wizards out there? If you're able to conjure nouns at the snap of your fingers starting with a specific letter, this game is for you. Quick: name a female celebrity whose name starts with F! How about a city starting with an R? The online Scattergories game allows you to play with strangers or friends, but you can only play with one person at a time, which is a bit of an upset considering the tangible boardgame allows several people to participate at once. 3. Mario Kart That's right, Nintendo's Mario Kart is available on the App Store! While you can play online with friends, you first have to unlock an entire cup, which equates to four races (so it's worth the extra time you have to put in). If you miss the good old days of playing video games with your college buds on a Wii or an ancient GameCube console, this one is for you. 4. PSYCH! If you've ever played Balderdash, then you will quickly grasp how PSYCH Works!, which is another game from Ellen DeGeneres (like Heads Up). The game may ask you to come up with a plot for an obscure movie title, and, you will get points for selecting the correct answer. If you're good at fibbing and even better at deducing the truth, you'll be sure to like PSYCH!. 5. Spades If you like card games that involve strategy and bidding, Spades is definitely for you. Feel free to google the lengthy rules if you're not already familiar with AI. Cards are a fun way to stay entertained, and Spades usually takes a decent amount of time to finish, so it's perfect between episodes of your new favorite show! Whether this is your first using Android, there's a lot to love here, and it all starts with finding some apps to fill that new phone (or tablet) with. Google Play is the app store that Google runs, and it's also an important piece of Android's security as it scans apps before and after they're downloaded and monitors them for unusual activity. It can be a bit overwhelming when you first open up Google Play, but don't worry, we're here to help you get started! If you already know the name of the app you're looking for, or have a specific app type in mind, you can search for it rather than browsing through app categories. Tap the Google Play icon on your home screen. Enter the name of the search icon on your keyboard (should be in the location of the Enter key). If you're not quite as sure what you want, or your search results don't help you (don't worry, it happens to all of us), there are other ways to find apps on Google PlayYou can browse through Google PlayYou can be a second or t tab.You're now ready to browse the charts for new apps. Swipe left and right between the charts for Top Free, Top New Free, Top New Free, Top New Paid, and Trending.You can also browse through Google Play by category: Tap the Google Play icon on your home screen. Tap Categories underneath the Home/Games tabs. Tap the category you'd like to browse. Now, some app categories are just a series of Top Charts narrowed to that category. Once you've found one you like, it's time to install it. How to download free apps Tap on an app in the search results or categories. Tap Read more and look through the app's description and reviews to ensure the app seems right for you. Tap Install. The app will now download and install itself, usually in a few seconds depending on how large or small the app is. If you're on a device running an older version of Android, you'll have to agree to an app's permissions before it downloads. Read the permissions before clicking Agree. Once the app is finished installing, an Open button will appear in the same place the Install button previously occupied. How to buy paid apps for buying a paid app is just a hair different than downloading a free one, and it goes like this: Tap on an app you'd like to buy. Tap the price to bring up the payment options. Your default payment method will be shown. If you want to change your payment method, tap the down arrow next to your current payment method. Tap Payment method. Tap Payment method. Tap one of your established payment method. Tap one of your established payment method will be prompted to add a credit card, PayPal account, or carrier billing. Tap Buy. Confirm your Google Play password or use your fingerprint to confirm your purchase. The payment is processed and the download will begin. Tap Continue to close the window. Apps need updates from time to time, and if you need to manually update your apps, here's how you do it. Swipe in from the left edge of the screen OR tap the three line menu icon in the top white bar to open the menu. Tap My apps & games. App needing updates will appear at the top of the list. To update all the apps needing updates. Rather than manually updating apps, which is easy to forget, Google Play is set to automatically update apps for you when you're on Wi-Fi. If you'd prefer that it install updates automatically even when on cellular data — or not auto-update apps. To turn off auto-update, select Do no auto-update apps. To enable auto-update on cellular data, select Auto-update at any time. If there are individual apps you do not want auto-update at any time. If there are individual apps you do not want auto-update apps. To enable auto-update apps. To enable auto-update apps. To enable auto-update at any time. If there are individual apps you do not want auto-update while allowing your other apps to stay updated. Tap the app you don't want auto-update at any time. If there are individual apps you do not want auto-update apps. To enable auto-update apps. To of the screen (next to the search icon). Tap to uninstall apps within the refund window, this box might read Refund install. For some paid apps within the refund window, this box might read Refund install. For some paid apps within the refund window, this box might read Refund install. device. How to remove apps from your app library If you install an app, don't like it, and uninstall it, it's still attached to your app history in the Library section of My apps & games. If you don't want to remove from your library. A window will pop up asking you to confirm that you wish to remove this from your library. Tap OK. Your turn! What do you love about the Google Play Store? Find any good apps lately? Have you downloaded the Android Central app (opens in new tab) yet? If not, go do that, so you can keep up to date on the latest Android and Google news and have easy access to more helpful how-to content! Updated May 2018: The steps and photos in the article have been cleaned and updated to reflect changes to Google Play's layout and appearance. PlayStation 5 owners can remotely download while you're out of the house and the game will be ready by the time you're home, provided there's enough free storage space on your PS5 directly from the console's settings, but the latest PlayStation App update lets you delete games, apps, and other media from the PS5's SDD remotely. (Remote downloads are also available for PlayStation 4 owners, but you still cannot manage PS4 storage win the PlayStation app installed. You must also link your PlayStation Network account and your PS5 to the app. The app runs you through the setup process the first time you use it, but you'll need to be near your PS5 to complete it. Your PS5 has to be connected to the internet and turned on or in rest mode to use the app to download or delete remotely. It won't work if the console is fully shut down or otherwise offline. G/O Media may get a commissionHow to remotely download games to your PS5 (and PS4)Open the "Game Library" tab.Select "Purchased." Scroll through the collection then tap the download is complete. You also have the option to immediately download games you purchase from the app's "PS Store" section and when you add free PSN titles to your library for the first time. To delete games and apps from your PS50pen the "Play" tab. Tap the cog icon to open the Settings menu. Your PS5's current storage space is listed at the top of the page. Tap "Storage" to view a list of items saved on the PS5's SSD. Tap the circle next to a game, app, or other saved content to select it. You can select multiple items at once. When you're ready, tap "Delete games" then "Delete games" the "Delete ga
